

Sage MAS 90 and 200 Material Requirement Planning (MRP)

Sage MAS 90 and 200 Material Requirement Planning (MRP) Learn the fundamentals of Sage MRP The Material Requirements Planning (MRP) module is used to maintain sufficient on-hand materials based on supply and demand. In this class you will learn the fundamentals of how this application can be used to reduce material costing and improve efficiency throughout your manufacturing or distribution operation. Topics in this class include: Enter projected demands for current and future calendar years Calculate item requirements based on data contained in other areas of your system Automatically generate and modify work orders Review the MRP report for recommendations on material needs

Who Benefits: All MAS 90 and MAS 200 customers looking to improve their MRP skills Prerequisites: Knowledge of Sage MAS 90 and 200 Inventory Management, Bill of Materials, and Work Order. Advanced Preparation: None Tuition: $250.00 CPE Credits: 4.5